TriVia:

The label art for this tea was inspired by the cover design of the sheet music for Glenn Miller's song, Moonlight Serenade. Released in 1939, the instrumental was an immediate hit, reaching #3 on the Billboard Charts, lasting for 15 weeks. Lyrics were added to it later by Mitchell Parish and it was re-recorded. Frank Sinatra released a version in 1965. It has appeared in numerous films & TV programs, and was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame.
